

Fiscal Council seeks an Economist

The Irish Fiscal Advisory Council is the State's independent budgetary watchdog. It is responsible for assessing the Government's overall budgetary stance, its forecasts and fiscal rules.

The Council is now seeking to hire an Economist. This is an ideal opportunity for those interested in policy and advancing a career in economics.

Job description

The successful candidate will work as part of a dynamic team of Economists that support the Council. Council members are highly experienced individuals from academia, think-tanks, and international bodies. The successful candidate will receive dedicated supervision and training. The skills acquired from the role could be applied to economic research or to public or private sector roles.

Key duties will include:

- Working together with other staff to assess economic and budgetary developments.
- Developing the Council's understanding of demographics trends and fiscal risks.
- Contributing to the Council's wider research agenda.
- Coordinating the Council's work on macroeconomic projections.

The successful candidate would be required to have:

- A Master's in economics and a good background in economics.
- Some knowledge of Ireland's public finances.
- Excellent writing, communications, interpersonal, and teamwork skills.

Terms & Conditions

Successful candidates will be appointed on a 3-year fixed term basis, with the possibility to extend further. Terms and conditions are in line with the Irish civil service and a probationary period of 6 months applies. The Council's offices are shared with the ESRI at Sir John Rogerson's Quay, Dublin 2. The Council operates a highly flexible, co-ordinated hybrid working policy.

Salary

The salary is linked to the civil service Assistant Principal (Standard Scale PPC) scale : €77,528 €80,383 €83,278 €86,182 €89,082 €90,754 €93,680¹ €96,617¹.

Entry is normally at the minimum of the scale and remuneration may be adjusted in line with Government pay policy. Different pay or conditions may apply if the appointee is already a serving Civil or Public Servant.

¹ After 3 Years and after 6 years satisfactory service at maximum, respectively.

Application Procedure

Applicants should 1) complete the online application form, and 2) submit a CV to jobs@FiscalCouncil.ie by no later than 12pm noon on Wednesday 5th June 2024. Late/incomplete applications will not be considered. Interviews would be planned for the following weeks. The Council is open to considering secondment arrangements for eligible candidates. The start date is negotiable. A panel of candidates may be formed for future potential appointments.
